At said hearing, the Council will consider any written objections filed with the Allen County Assessor, the Allen County Department of Planning Services, or the Grabill Town Hall prior to the hearing.

After considering the same, the Council shall arrive at a conclusion as to the public utility and benefit of the proposed designation and shall act to confirm, modify and confirm, or rescind the subject Declaratory Resolution. Confirmation of the Resolution would have the effect of allowing property owners of the designated real estate to file with the Allen County Auditor for abatement of certain property taxes pursuant to I.C. 6-1.1-12.1.
