POLICY

1. The period of deduction for real property is ten years.
2. The period of deduction for personal property is ten years.

Under Fort Wayne Common Council's tax phase-in policies and procedures, P&A Realty, Inc./Intellectual Technology, Inc. is eligible for a ten year deduction on real and personal property improvements. Attached is a spreadsheet that shows how the application scored under the review system. Also attached is an estimate of the taxes saved and paid over the length of the ten year deduction schedule.

COMMENTS

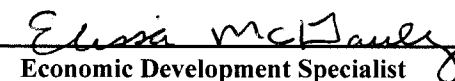

After reviewing the City's Procedures and Policies on Economic Revitalization Areas (ERA) which are provided with each ERA Application and talking with staff, representatives from P&A Realty, Inc. informed city staff that prior to their application submission, they filed for an Improvement Location Permit. Council administrative procedures allow for a waiver of non-compliance when applicants have initiated development prior to the filing of the designation application. Further, such waivers will only be considered where the applicant has filed and received an improvement location permit or structural permit and broken ground for the project within one month prior to the date the designation application is received.

To allow an economic revitalization area designation after the initiation of development, Indiana Code 6-1.1-12.1-11.3 permits adoption of a resolution to waive non-compliance due to a failure to file a Statement of Benefits (SB-1) form prior to the initiation of development. The confirming resolution for this project contains language to waive non-compliance that will allow for the final approval of an economic revitalization area designation on this property for property tax phase-in. A letter from Patrick J. Bruggeman, President of P&A Realty, Inc., is attached explaining the request for the waiver of non-compliance.
