Overview

Big Apple Pizza was established in 2014 by Patrick O’Sullivan, a native of Long Island, Ny. After realizing the need for unique and authentic style NY pizza here in Fort Wayne; Big Apple Pizza was born.

The original location was on Wells St, but an opportunity arose for Patrick to move the location to downtown Fort Wayne. He loved this idea and thought that downtown offered the perfect “vibe” to match the uniqueness of his pizza. Big Apple offers some of the largest pizzas around, including one that is 24 inches!!

After operating in downtown for almost a year, Patrick decided it was time to put his other talents to work, and decided to sell to Amber Quinn-Elliott, her son, Jordan Quinn, and her mother, Sandi Bubb.

The Owners

Amber, Jordan and Sandi each bring a unique piece of the puzzle to their new venture. Amber owns two food trucks here in Fort Wayne and is currently working on a 3rd one for Big Apple Pizza. Jordan is a 28 year old entrepreneur and has his finger on the pulse of what excites people in his age group (craft beer, sports, downtown, etc.). Sandi brings 51 years of real estate experience as well as having owned a campground (that Amber managed) for over 10 years.

Currently, Amber is in Big Apple on most days, overseeing operations and ensuring that customers have a positive experience. The employees are trained to treat each and every customer as though they are family, and to go above and beyond to ensure every customer will want to come back. Dine in, carry out, Door Dash and Waiter on the Way make our pizza available to everyone across the city, but the best experience comes from enjoying the pizza right in our store!

The future

We would love to obtain a liquor license for several reasons. We have recently teamed up with the Downtown Improvement District, and they have put a parklet out in front of our store (summer only.) The feedback we have gotten has been amazing!! Customers love the opportunity to dine outside and enjoy the atmosphere. However, we get asked on almost a daily basis if we serve beer or alcohol yet. Our goal is to improve the customer experience by adding adult beverages, entertainment (possibly an acoustic artist or art shows), and give residents another reason to come downtown, and see what all Fort Wayne has to offer! A liquor license would add so much value to our already unique niche we offer.

Variety of cuisine is a big part of what makes downtown Fort Wayne special. From national chains to local, family-owned restaurants (like ours!), Fort Wayne's downtown cuisine is a draw for people from the surrounding area to come enjoy! What we want to do is connect our fantastic pizza from New York with Fort Wayne's extensive beer and wine options. We want to offer that "Fort Wayne flavor" by offering beer from local breweries such as Mad Anthony, Hop River, Fortlandia, etc. and from our local wineries like Heartland, Two-EE's, and Country Heritage. Having a pint of brew or a glass of wine goes beyond just being a delicious beverage – it connects family and friends and incorporates the flavor that Fort Wayne has to offer! We have had patrons turn away and go to a competing pizza place many times due to the fact that we don't offer beer or wine. Going out to eat isn't just getting nutrition – it's an experience. What better way to provide the great people of Fort Wayne and its visitors than the best pizza Fort Wayne has to offer with the best beer/wine that Fort Wayne has to offer?!
